

PHIL PINEDO SR.

Was nominated by his family who were on hand to pay tribute to their father . Felipe owned and trained quarter horses in Arizona for over 45 years. He was perhaps immortalized when he raced in the great International race between a Mexican horse and a US horse. This was run in Douglas, Az. With one horse racing in Mexico and the other on US soil. Movies were made and songs were sung and still are today about this great race. Felipe owned the winning horse El Relampago. Felipe was a kind , generous and loving man who cared deeply for his horses. He has passed that same love of the sport to his sons who now carry on the Pinedo racing tradition. Felipe is a part of Arizona Quarter Horse History
